

EVENT RESULTS

MCW PRO WRESTLING — TRIBUTE TO THE LEGENDS 2025

OFFICIAL MATCH RESULTS

Saturday, November 15 • RJ Meyer Arena • Joppa, MD

MCW Pro Wrestling delivered an explosive Tribute to the Legends event, celebrating the iconic match styles of wrestling's past while showcasing the next generation of MCW stars. The RJ Meyer Arena was electric from the opening bell all the way through the Emperor Games main event. Here are the official results in the exact order they took place

Lumberjack Match

Declared a No Contest

What was supposed to be a wild opening contest exploded into chaos thanks to the interference of James Ellsworth. The match broke down beyond control, forcing the referee to rule it a No Contest.

Bunkhouse Battle Royal

Winner: Tony Macco — NEW Golden Boot Holder

The Sensei of the Dolomac Dojo survived the Come-As-You-Are Bunkhouse Battle Royal to earn the Golden Boot, granting him a championship match of his choosing at any time over the next year.

Tina San Antonio vs. Brittany Blake

(Special Guest Referee: MCW Women's Champion Simone Valentina)

Winner: Tina San Antonio

EVENT RESULTS

Chaos struck when Simone Valentina was manipulated into taking physical action—accidentally spearing Brittany Blake, then being forced to count the pinfall for Tina San Antonio. Massive controversy erupted as all three women clashed post-match.

Diego Cruz (w/ Mr. Rahman) vs. Reggie Collins

Dealer's Choice Intergender Match: Changed to Tiara James vs. Reggie Collins

Winner: Top Tier Tiara James

Using his dealer's choice power, Mr. Rahman converted the match into an intergender bout, adding a major twist: no disqualifications for Tiara James, but all rules applied to Reggie Collins. With interference from Diego and Rahman's new bodyguard, Tiara scored the pinfall on Reggie.

Heath Slater vs. Sunshine Danny Granview (w/ Maia Martinez)

Winner: Former WWE Star Heath Slater

The crowd exploded for Heath Slater's MCW appearance, and he delivered big—scoring a clean pinfall over Danny Granview to the delight of the fans in Joppa.

Last Man Standing – MCW Rage TV Championship

Alec Oden def. Jadis Quinn

After a brutal war, Jadis Quinn was unable to answer the referee's 10-count. Tina San Antonio got involved, drawing out MCW Women's Champion Simone Valentina and escalating tensions among MCW's rising stars.

Six-Person Tables Match

Black Wall Street & Christyan def. Sexy & Blessed & Maia Martinez

EVENT RESULTS

Bodies flew, tables shattered, and Black Wall Street—with Christyan—secured the victory in a chaotic tribute to old-school hardcore wrestling.

MCW Tag Team Championship – Falls Count Anywhere

The Zukkos (c) def. Hellfire Maguire & The Mecca

The Zukkos extended their dominant tag title reign, winning a wild Falls Count Anywhere fight.

But the moment that stole the segment came afterward: Hellfire Maguire turned on The Mecca, leading to an emotional meltdown as The Mecca snapped and destroyed Maguire in a vicious assault, ending the team's partnership in violent fashion.

Emperor Games Elimination Match – Main Event

Team Miami Mike def. Team Keys

(Sole Survivors: Miami Mike Walker & Demarcus Kane)

A war of stamina, strategy, and survival closed the night, with Miami Mike Walker pinning Joseph Keys—thanks to an assist from Demarcus Kane—to win the match for Team Miami Mike.

Per match stipulations, GM Phil Stamper earned the right to name the new No. 1 contender to the MCW Heavyweight Championship. He chose Miami Mike Walker, who will challenge Joseph Keys for the title at Seasons Beatings on December 27th.